Faculty: Alaina Olivieri

The Ballet School prides itself on providing high quality classical ballet and dance training for students of all ages and abilities. The structure of each class is both challenging and encouraging, with emphasis placed on developing proper dance technique and etiquette. Performance opportunities are offered throughout the year for Advanced level dance students. The end-of-year dance recital in June provides a performance opportunity for students of every level to share what they have learned over the course of the year.

Students should expect to remain in a level for more than one year. Please contact the instructor with class placement inquiries. New students need the instructor's permission to join a class after the second billing quarter. The Ballet School adheres to SPCAA's 36 week academic year (September – June). For your convenience, tuition can be billed quarterly or yearly.

PRE-BALLET/CREATIVE MOVEMENT: (ages 5-7)

This class builds your child's confidence, posture, coordination and flexibility, while nurturing a joy of dance. Class introduces basic ballet terminology and encourages self-expression through movement games and improvisation.

LEVEL ONE: (no prior training necessary, 8+)

The structure of this traditional ballet class (barre, center and across the floor) develops physical and mental discipline. Students will learn basic ballet technique and terminology while improving posture, strength and flexibility. Students will participate in 2 classes per week.

LEVEL TWO: (some prior training, 9+)

This traditional ballet class is for students with some training who are interested in developing their technical strength and knowledge in classical ballet. Ballet 2 builds upon the rudimentary movements learned in Ballet 1, placing more emphasis on coordination, musicality, and technical proficiency. Students will participate in 2 classes per week.

LEVEL THREE: (prior training required, 12+)

More advanced barre and center work is introduced. Attention is paid to developing movement sequences, proper extension of the legs and feet, use of the head, balance, as well as simple beats and basic pirouettes. Students are encouraged to attend 3 classes per week.

LEVEL FOUR: (at least three years of prior training required, 13+)

This is a challenging class that requires strength and stamina for more complex adagio, pirouette, and allegro combinations. This class will pay attention to fine details, use of the upper body, breath of movement and expression as well as increasingly advanced repertory of steps. Students enrolled at this level are required to attend at least 3 classes per week.

POINTE: (instructor permission, 13+) Registration requires teacher recommendation. Students must attend at least one Level of ballet class per week. To be considered, a student must demonstrate significant leg and foot strength, balance, and clean and steady execution of exercises. Beginner focus will be on learning to form combinations, to continue to improve strength and develop skills.

ADULT BALLET: Women and men are invited to learn ballet in an atmosphere that is supportive and engaging. Beginners are welcome as each class is designed to be accessible to students at a variety of levels. Build strength, flexibility, and improve coordination while exploring traditional and modern and modern ballet techniques. No experience is necessary.

This class introduces students to Classic Modern techniques such as, but not limited to, Limon and Horton, as well as classic Jazz technique, ala Luigi, Giordano and Fosse.

Ballet School Dress Code

Proper dance attire is important in creating a productive learning environment in dance class. Please adhere to the dress code as it allows the student a broad range of movement and provides the instructor with the ability to see the students' body and make necessary corrections. Following the dress code establishes good work ethic, respect, discipline, unity, focus, and energy during class.

Musical Beginnings

Faculty: Margaret (Meg) Sawyer

Musical Beginnings: A course designed for you and your little one(s) to explore the building blocks of early music education, creative movement and each other. Focusing on being developmentally-appropriate, the classes provide a natural way to experience musical concepts, such as tempo, pitch and volume, space, shape, time, force, flow and rhythm. Playing musical games with special props, we discover what our bodies and voices can do. Percussion instruments help us express the beat. Singing traditional nursery rhymes teaches rhythm through language. We may learn to appreciate many types of sounds by listening to recordings of various musical genres and forms. Creative responses and imagination do emerge. Infants, toddlers and preschoolers delight in an open and playful environment of discovery. Caregivers enjoy the special bonding time with their loved ones as they explore music and movement in a creative class.

Meg Sawyer has spent the last 27 years maintaining a private studio and working as an elementary and preschool teacher in the town of Shortsville. She teaches all ages and enjoys playing piano and viola performances. Meg started piano lessons at the age of 5 with her mother, Janet B. Smith, and studied the viola with Nancy Hunt of the RPO. At age 12, she continued piano lessons through the Eastman School of Music's community education program with Harriet Zimmerman, and also continued viola lessons, playing in the Youth Orchestra (RPYO). Meg attended Houghton College, graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Music Education. Meg began offering private lessons as well as working as a school music/elementary teacher. She later returned to the Eastman School of Music, focusing on piano and early childhood music. She created "Munchkin Music," a movement and music program for pre-school children, which involves the use of rhythm instruments.

Faculty: Julianna Gray and Ellen Stokoe, Trevor Burrall

Suzuki Violin and Viola Lessons are offered to students (ages 3+) and at all levels. The Suzuki method developed in Japan by Dr. Shinichi Suzuki is based on the premise that all children are born with a high potential for learning, and given the opportunity and proper environment, any child can learn to play an instrument. Students in the Suzuki program learn to make music using the “mother tongue” approach, which focuses on listening and imitating, just as they learn to speak.

Parents in the Suzuki program have vital roles in the educational process. A parent is required to be an active participant in the lesson and at group class and to help structure practice at home. The weekly group classes supplement the private lessons and are an essential part of the Suzuki program. The group classes give students opportunities to experience the joy of playing together and for one another. Lessons are scheduled individually.

Julianna Gray began Suzuki violin lessons at the age of two in her hometown of Corning, New York. She holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Violin Performance from the University of Oregon, where she was a cum laude student of Fritz Gearhart. While pursuing her Master’s Degree in Violin Performance at Ithaca College, she was a teaching assistant to Susan Waterbury and completed her long-term training in Suzuki Pedagogy with Sandy Reuning. Julianna has held Suzuki teaching positions at the University of Oregon, Ithaca Talent Education and the Hochstein School of Music. Before moving to Rochester, she played eight seasons with the Syracuse Symphony Orchestra and taught violin at Lemoyne College. She is currently the coordinator of the string department and instructor of violin and viola at St. Peter’s Community Arts Academy. Julianna is a member of the faculty of Hobart and William Smith Colleges. She performs regularly with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra.

Ellen (Sonnenberg) Stokoe is a violinist from Wisconsin currently in the Violin section of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. In addition to being an active performer in the Rochester area, she is a devout violin teacher currently offering in-person and online lessons. Ellen enjoys teaching a variety of ages and levels, from young students beginning with the Suzuki Method, through advanced students. She has completed several courses in Suzuki Teacher Training with Christie Felsing and Martha Shackford. Ellen began her studies at age five with the Suzuki Method. After expressing an affinity for music early in her life, Ellen’s mom saw an advertisement offering Suzuki violin lessons, and she began her training. Ellen continued her musical training with former Assistant and Associate Concert Masters of the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, Jerome Franke and Samantha George. While completing her Master’s degree, and before joining the RPO, Ellen was a tenured member of Symphonia in Syracuse, NY. With the RPO, Ellen performed in a live recording of a world premier for the album American Rapture, which received a Grammy Award in 2020. Ellen has participated in several summer festivals, including the National Repertory Orchestra, the Orford Academy of Music, and the Interlochen Center for the Arts, where she was an Emerson Scholar. She also participated in the Collegium Musicum Summer Academy at Weissenstein Castle in Pommersfelden, Germany, serving as principle second violin and soloing with the chamber orchestra.

Arts Academy Recital Etiquette

Student Recitals are valuable experiences for young musicians. Unfortunately, they can also be a source of some stress and anxiety. Below you will find general guidelines for both performers and audience members that ensure recitals are enjoyable for everyone. Audience members must remember the purpose of their visit to the recital hall -- to listen quietly, actively, and appreciatively to the music being offered by the performers.

Performers

- Performers should wear appropriate attire. Proper attire shows respect to your audience, as well as to yourself, and to what you have accomplished. Of course, no one should feel obligated to spend money for new clothes.
- Performers must bow at the end of the performance. Instructor and student will practice bowing before the recital.
- Arrive at the requested time in order to find your seat and receive instructions for the performance.
- During the recital, you must be courteous to all performers. Please listen and be quiet.
- Respect the performers. Noise from whispering, talking, candies wrappers, etc. during a program is not acceptable. Texting, reading, studying, playing video games, and writing letters during a program are also inappropriate.

Audience

- Recitals are a special occasion, so it is customary to dress nicely.
  - Please arrive at least 15 minutes early to find a comfortable place to sit.
  - Please stay until the performance or event is completely over. Attending a recital so that other families will serve as audience to your student, and then leaving before the other performers have finished is unacceptable. If you have other obligations or matters to attend to before the recital is over, please do not attend.
Do not re-enter the recital hall or switch seats while someone is performing.
  - Turn off all cell phones and other electrical devices.
  - When the recital begins, please listen quietly. Crying babies should be taken out. They are not happy, and neither is the audience nor the performer!
  - Respect the performers. Noise from whispering, talking, unwrapping candy, etc., during a program is unacceptable. Texting, reading, studying, and writing letters during a program are also inappropriate.
  - The soloist will bow; please applaud politely.
  - Enjoy! Your presence is the greatest affirmation!

Child Safety and Parental Responsibility: Faculty and staff are not responsible for and do not supervise children before and/or after lessons or group classes. Only during his/her instruction time is a child supervised by faculty and staff. Each child's parent or guardian is required to be in the building during private instruction. For group classes and choirs, it is important that you are prompt in both delivering and picking up your children. |

Using SPCAA Facilities

Parents, guardians, and siblings are welcome to wait in the basement lounge during a child's lesson or class. We ask everyone to be respectful of other lessons or events in the building. Please keep noise and distractions to a minimum. Siblings up to the age of five are welcome to play quietly in the nursery; however, we ask that parents and guardians to neaten the room before leaving. The nursery is part of St. Peter's Church and is kindly made available to Academy families. Faculty are not responsible for putting away toys and cleaning the nursery.

New Student Registration

If seeking private music lessons, new students should contact the instructor or SPCAA to establish a lesson time. After placement with an instructor has been confirmed, please complete the registration online, pay the $50 registration fee (one fee per family, per year), along with tuition before the first lesson.

Returning Student Registration

After confirming day, time, and length of lesson with your current instructor, complete and submit the registration form on-line and appropriate tuition and/or registration fee before the first lesson.

Missed Lessons

As a courtesy, please notify your instructor in advance of any absence. Make-up lessons due to student absence are at the full discretion of the instructor and will be arranged at mutually satisfactory times. The Academy is not obligated to schedule make-up lessons or classes due to student non-attendance, illness, or vacation, and there is no refund for lessons missed by students. In the event of a cancellation due to inclement weather, or by the instructor, the instructor is responsible for arranging a make-up lesson.

Weather-related Cancellation

SPCAA does not necessarily follow public school cancellations. If a cancellation occurs, instructors will notify their students, and area radio stations will be notified.

Withdrawal/Refunds

Notice of withdrawal from instruction and all requests for refunds must be made in writing to the Academy. Verbal notice or requests from students, parents, or faculty cannot be accepted.

Registration fees and materials fees are not refundable.

Refunds are made on the following basis:

- Before the first scheduled lesson/class – 100 percent of tuition.
- Before the third scheduled lesson/class – 50 percent of tuition.
- After the third scheduled lesson/class – no tuition credit.

Insufficient Class Enrollment/Cancellation

If any class has insufficient enrollment, the Academy reserves the right to cancel the class.

If a class is cancelled refunds will be issued within 15 business days

Photo and Recording Policy

The Academy reserves the right and may give permission to photographers or outside media to photograph classes, programs, and participants at all our facilities and properties. Please be aware that these photos are for promotional purposes and may be used in future publications and media communications. By participating in Academy programs, you consent to the taking and publication of your photograph for these purposes.

It admits students of any religion, race, color, national and ethnic origins to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. # St. Peter's Community Arts Academy Scholarship

Due no later than September 17, 2022

Financial Aid Guidelines

The following information is provided to assist students, parents and faculty members in understanding the financial aid policies of the St. Peter's Community Arts Academy. It should be understood that current funding for financial assistance through SPCAA remains somewhat limited. Every effort will, however, be made to assist those students who, because of financial difficulties, would otherwise be unable to study at SPCAA.

Financial Aid Award Policies

The acceptance of financial assistance from SPCAA carries with it an obligation on the part of the student to attend classes, rehearsals, lessons or performances on a regular basis and work diligently on making progress in his/her principal area of study. Financial aid may be withdrawn at any time if, in the opinion of the principal teacher and the Director of SPCAA, the recipient fails to meet minimum standards that are expected by the teacher and SPCAA. The receipt of aid does not guarantee assistance in the future.

SPCAA holds one annual fundraising event each year and we request your help as a parent volunteer at our Annual Dinner with the Arts which will be held Sunday, April 30, 2023.

A parent or guardian of each financial aid recipient will be asked to sign a letter of agreement accepting the financial aid and to return it within two weeks of notification of the award.

SPCAA is committed to providing assistance to those students who might otherwise be unable to study at the Academy. Limitations in the amount of aid available may mean that not every student with a demonstrated need can be helped. It is important that any additional information that might affect the decision of the Academy to grant aid be detailed as part of the application. Such information might include unusual medical expenses or expenses for education.

Please document such expenses on the Financial Aid Form.

- Please note that all information submitted will be kept in strict confidence.
- SPCAA does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religious beliefs, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status or disability in its admissions, financial aid, scholarship and other educational policies.
